OLEKSANDR TKACHENKO

JUNIOR FULLSTACK DEVELOPER

SUMMARY (portfolio-link)

I am a Junior fullstack Developer with a strong grasp of HTML, CSS, JavaScript, TypeScript, React, Node.js, and React Native. I have experience working as a team lead on collaborative projects and specialize in crafting visually appealing and user-friendly web applications, while also writing efficient JavaScript code. My enthusiasm for innovation drives me to continually expand my skill set and explore emerging technologies. I am a fast learner with keen attention to detail and am eager to join a team where I can further develop both personally and professionally, making meaningful contributions to project success.
